02 About Myself

My name is Bishal Karki, graduated student of Bachelor of Information Technology. I am a passionate front-end developer based in Australia.

I love to design and create responsive websites or web apps from scratch. The technologies, tools and languages I am using to build my projects are HTML, CSS, JavaScript, REACT JS, Bootstrap, Git and GitHub, Figma, and VS Code.

I have eagerness to learn something new every day and I love to share my knowledge to my fellow front-end developers. And I am looking forward to talk with you!
